

BMSS Semi-Weekly COVID-19 Update Email

April 07, 2020

We Are BMSS #Remote Style

Like our clients, most BMSS employees are working from home these days. Our workspace and “co-workers” may look a little different, but we remain steadfast in our focus to serve our client needs throughout this time.

To lighten things up, we’re giving you a behind-the-scenes look at some of our CPAs’ work day. #remotestyle.

Clients Who Have Applied for Loans from the Paycheck Protection Program:

We understand there may be uncertainty as to when you will receive funds from your loan application. As soon as we receive clarity on this timeline, we will communicate with you. Additionally, we are beginning to receive questions regarding the loan forgiveness calculation of the program. As details are clarified, we will also communicate this information to you.

Update on SBA Paycheck Protection Program for Individuals & Business Owners

Last night, the SBA released FAQs on the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP). We’ve linked all the FAQs and highlighted the significant ones for you here.

BMSS Wesson Presents: A Market Update Within the COVID-19 Environment

Please join us Thursday for our next webinar in our COVID-19 webinar series. The webinar will begin at 9:00 a.m. CDT and will feature BMSS Wesson Wealth Solutions CEO, Mark Wesson.

We are using a new webinar system through Zoom which requires all participants to register on the Zoom website. Zoom will ask for your first name, last name and email address. It will then send you a link that is unique to you alone. This will allow us to track for CPE purposes.

The accounting, tax and general business implications of COVID-19 is a rapidly evolving situation and BMSS will provide updated and/or revised information as it becomes available. Some information that we provide, for example, updates on the progress, passage, and contents of The Families First Coronavirus Response Act, may raise legal implications in addition to tax and accounting issues. Our mention of any such matters is for general information purposes and not intended to be legal advice. We encourage you to consult with your legal counsel on such matters.
